THE GAYWOOD VALLEY CONSERVATION GROUP

Abbey Farm 27/06/22

Additional Photographs

With thanks to Hamish

Assembling at Abbey Farm

Walking uphill to the location

Edward explaining the tasks for the day

Old Sky Lark’s nest

Bladderwort

Caterpillar eating a great mullein leaf

Poppy pm the edge of a cereal field

Chalky soil on the hill top

Members break time

Common parsnip plant

Edward identifying a grass from the field

View of the countryside before it rained

Field Forgetmenot

Field thistle

Great Mullein

Large flint in the chalky soil

Wild oat

Kidney Vetch in profusion

Phil digging out ragwort

Hedge bedstraw

Great Mullein leaves

Members scattered over the hillside

Kidney vetch

St John’s wort

Vipers (or field) bugloss

White Campion